

BLACKOUT HOURS

During the XIV International Congress of Dermatology, Industries and other organizations can organize ancillary events to provide social and business opportunities for firm employees and meeting attendees. Ancillary events, including business meetings, social gatherings, receptions, board/committee meetings and media/press events, should not compete with Congress official scientific programme, industry symposia, or other official congress events.

The organization of ancillary events must be compliant with these guidelines.

Blackout Hours during the ICD Congress:

Thursday	19 June 2025	8:30 - 18:10
Friday	20 June 2025	8:30 - 18:10
Saturday	21 June 2025	8:30 – 13:30

During the above-mentioned hours any extra activities can be carried out exclusively during the breaks. Please consult the Programme at a Glance to overview breaks.

As a reminder, please note that during the ICD Congress there will be the following Social Events:

- 18 June: Opening Ceremony
- 19 June: President's Dinner
- 20 June: Networking Dinner

Ancillary events organized during the blackout hours must meet the following criteria:

- The activity or event must take place in one of the meeting rooms provided by ICD for a fee – meeting rooms availability is limited.
- The activity or event cannot be a scientific session neither a product launch/presentation.
- Marketing pieces, invitations, communications, or advertisement of the meeting must be approved by the Organising Secretariat.

Ancillary events organized outside of the blackout hours must meet the following criteria:

- The activity or event must comply with blackout hours (see above) and be scheduled as to permit attendees sufficient time to participate in official meeting activities and sessions.
- No marketing pieces, invitations, communications of any kind, advertising, or other written or spoken descriptions of the event may use the ICD name or logo, or otherwise suggest or imply that ICD has endorsed or sponsored the event. The name of the ICD Congress may be mentioned one time in each communication for identification purposes. ICD or the name of the Congress may not be part of a title or heading of the ancillary event, be obviously presented, or listed first in print materials.
- All promotional materials for Ancillary events must include the following statement:
"This meeting/event is not an official program of the XIV International Congress of Dermatology."
- Event/Meeting signage must not include the ICD name, logo, or name of the Congress.
- No marketing event may be done at the ICD Congress venue. Distribute or display signs, flyers, invitations, or use other means of advertising the event is strictly forbidden.
